

JOSEPHINE LEONE Biography

JOSEPHINE LEONE has been performing at venues and festivals across Ontario and Quebec, sharing the stage with great talent such as Nathaniel Rateliff and Bif Naked, as well as performing in front of over 10,000 people with Trooper and Loverboy at Kemptville Live Music Festival.

The band was gaining incredible momentum after a successful Ontario tour in the fall of 2019 for the release of their debut album Gold In The Fire. After the cancellation of major shows booked in 2020 and 2021, JOSEPHINE LEONE hit the ground running with their iconic performance at Ottawa Bluesfest in July 2022, receiving even greater acknowledgement for the live footage release of their performance of their song 'Freedom Song'.

From June to September 2023, the band will perform the unplugged acoustic rendition of their set in a series of shows titled 'Acoustic Sessions', while preparing to record their next full length/full band album.
